RACE WAR IN GEORGIA.

The race troub e at Darien, Ga., has assumed a serious aspect and last night Brunswick was wired for re-enforcements of every white man that can get a gun and ammunition. The negroes have practically deserted Darien, proper, and taken to the swamps. They are now massed about twelve miles from Darien, and have thrown out pickets to guard against the whites. Word has been sent to Darien that the negroes will not submit to arrest. An armed posse has left for the scene by horseposse has left for the scene by horse-back and a special train will carry out another posse. A steamer is being sent bought a bottle and to her delight found to Brunswick and that city is begged to berself benefitted from first dose. She critical and Captain Grayson, in command of all the State troops, was in conference with a committee of citizens of Darien as to the best thing to do. A battle between the whites and blacks in the swamps seems inevitable. It is in the swamps seems inevitable. It is considered that the Liberty independ understood that the Liberty indepen-dent troops are en route to Darien and will join the two posses from South Newport. The cavalry and citizens will then form a line and march through he swamps, arresting every negro with a gun. Several white families have been sent away from Darien to allow the men time to fight. A detachment of soldiers have been dispatched to The Ridge, Darien's swell suburb, to guard the residents there. Soldiers are pa-trolling the streets in Darien. All bar-rooms have been closed by Mayor Ke-nan and Captain Grayson. All this is the outcome of the riotous situation that has prevailed in Darien for several days following the arrest of Henry De-lagan, a big negro politican, for an alleged assault on a white woman. The negros falsely conceived the idea that Delagan was to be lynched, and dropped everything to go to his supposed rescue when the sheriff started to re-move him to Savanneh for safe keeping. They surrounded the jail and two hundred military came from Savannah to quell them.

The day following arrests of rioters began, and forty were jailed. Two of Delagan's sons were wanted, and night Joseph Townsend Thursday and Octavius Hopkins, as spe-cial deputies, went to arrest nem at their home, several miles from Darien, which was surrounded by negroes. The Delegans were handed guns by their friends and opened fire, after apparently submitting to arrest. One load of buckshot tore Townsend's entire body to pieces, and another load partly shot away Hopkins's shoulder. Hopkins returned the fire. Hopkins went for his buggy, and, coming back for his wounded companion, was threatened with instant death by a swarm of negroes who crowded around him. Hopkins defied the mob, and, placing Townsend in the buggy, drove off with him. Townsend died in the buggy before home was reached. Hopkins went to town with the news, and it spread over the entire section. R. R. Hopkins, his brother and a party from Brunswick came on the first train, and every convict camp in the State was wired for bloodbounds. W. R. Townsend and his son Alf, from Glynn, arrived yesterday evening, and a council of war was held. The Ridge people called for soldiers and a detachment was ordered out. Sheriff Blount's posse was organized and equipped and is now en route to Delagan's swamp. Scouts returning from the swamp report the negroes massing and defying arrest. The mail and passenger train on the Darien and Western Railroad is the

While the soldiers are guarding Darien and the whites preparing to rout the negroes from their swamp re-treat, the court and State officials are doing all in their power to keep down trouble. Fearful of an attack on the train the sherifl was ordered yesterday to send all his prisoners to Savannah by special. Capt. Grayson, with sixty soldiers, double quicked to the jail and formed a hollow square. Guards were thrown around the churches to prevent the negroes from sounding their usual riot alarm and the prisoners were hustled out between fixed bayonets. A run was made for the steamer under guard of fifteen soldiers. The tug Iris left for Savannan with them, where they are in jail.
